Searey Confesses to the Train Robbery and Implicates Morganfield.

There were but two concerned in the robbery, Searey and Morganfield. The latter had planned for the hold-up. A hunt for booty.

CALVERTON, Va., Oct. 24.—Before being brought to Fredericksburg, Chas. J. Searey, the Aquia Creek train robber, made a confession which was taken down, put into typewriting, and is now in the hands of the proper authorities. There were but two men concerned in the robbery, Morganfield and Searey. They had known each other before, and had talked of a scheme of that sort, but Searey for some time refused to go into it. They finally met in Washington and there agreed to rob a train, but fixed on no particular one. From Washington they went to Fredericksburg, hanging about there for two or three days, staying in the woods most of the time, but going into Fredericksburg several times.

On the afternoon of the day of the robbery they walked over to Brooks Station from Fredericksburg, and there waited for the engine and train. They got on the train at Brooks in the darkness behind the tender, having been hidden near the pickle factory, under a box car, when the train stopped. They had no particular reason for selecting Aquia Creek as the spot for the robbery.

Morganfield blew open the car door with dynamite, using a half stick with a fuse and cap in the end. Morganfield also entered the car, while Searey stood outside and terrorized the passengers and train crew. After the robbery they got off the engine and walked northwest over the country road, going to Calverton Station, in Fauquier county, and then to Midland and Dealton, and on by the Fauquier White Sulphur Springs, following the telephone line to Front Royal. Near Cantonment they hid in the woods some of the goods they had gotten from the express car.

After being brought here Searey agreed to go and show where the goods, consisting mostly of bonds and bank drafts, were hidden. On Monday he was taken in a wagon from Fredericksburg, with Robert Finkerton, of New York; Sergeant C. W. Edlington, of Fredericksburg, and W. Seymour White, commonwealth's attorney for Stafford county, over the route traveled by him in the train, to the depot to locate the spot where the bonds had been hidden. Monday night the party spent with ex-Sheriff Hugh Adde, of Stafford.

After breakfast, with Adde, the party set out to find the place where they had hidden the money and the goods. The express pouch containing the bonds and drafts, up the Stafford road, they went, by Stafford's store, to Brantonsburg and to Calverton, Searey trying to remember the road he and his partner traveled and the place where they hid the money, but when Calverton was reached he had failed to identify any of the roads.

From Calverton the party drove to Callets and from there back to the road to Stafford's store. About three miles from Callets Searey identified the place where he left the road and took to the woods. Driving into a field the horses were led behind a haystack and the search for the bag began.

The shades of evening were falling and Searey, handcuffed to Finkerton, with Sergeant Edlington, ex-Sheriff Adde and Commonwealth Attorney White spread out through the pines. Searey had described the spot exactly, but an hour's search failed to find it. It was getting quite dark when Mr. Adde called out that he had found the spot, and all parties hastened up to where, under the roots of a blow-down tree, just as Searey had described, the bag was taken out. Its contents were not examined.

The party drove at once back to Calverton, where the bag was sealed and shipped to the Adams Express Co. at Washington. The party will spend the night here, and go to Fredericksburg Wednesday morning.

A BOLD CLAIM.

Attorneys Assert That Theft From the Government Can Not Be Punished by the District of Columbia Courts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Judge Cox of the district supreme court, Monday issued a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Wm. B. Smith, of the bureau of engraving and printing, who was committed for the action of the grand jury in the police court Friday, with Geo. W. Longstreet, on the charge of stealing $2,000 stamps from the government.

The petition for the writ alleged that neither party had jurisdiction over offenses against the government of the United States, that jurisdiction being confined to United States courts.

The petition was first presented to Judge Wetmore, who suggested that some other judge be asked to issue the writ. It was then presented to Judge Cole, who refused to issue it.

"Why," remarked Judge Cole, "if your contention be correct, no one could be punished in the district of Columbia for stealing from the government."

"Well, your honor," replied Smith's attorney, "we boldly claim that."

"It is too bold a claim," declared Judge Cole. "There is nothing in it, and I will not grant the petition. Besides, it is a matter which can be taken after an indictment."

Judge Cox subsequently granted the writ, and the question whether the courts of the District of Columbia have jurisdiction over the acts committed against the government is to be tried on Wednesday.

TO DOWN THE TRUST.

Important Proceedings in the Supreme Court Against the Great Sugar Combine.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The case of the United States against the sugar trust will probably be argued in the supreme court during the present week. The case comes to the supreme court on an appeal from the United States circuit court of appeals for the third circuit, taken by the United States. It is a bill in equity to upset this trust, filed by the United States under the so-called Sherman anti-trust law of July 2, 1890.

The appeal presents generally the question of the validity and effect of the law. Aside from the bearing of the case on the sugar interest, the decision of a case of this character touching the validity of the Sherman law as applied to other trusts. It is expected to prove a test case.

ANARCHISTS COMING.

Their Mission Alleged to be to Blow Up Government Buildings, etc.

The French Government Sends Word to Washington—An Intercepted London Cipher Letter Foretold Carnot's Death—An Ambassador Marked.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Under the terms of an international agreement, the French government has notified the state department that seventy immigrants, known to be anarchists, are about to sail for America, and instructions have been sent to the police authorities throughout the country to be on the lookout for these undesirable visitors, whose names and descriptions are given, but which will not be made public.

The advice thus sent to the United States through the usual diplomatic channels forms the basis of a sensational article in Sunday's Post, setting forth that the superintendent of police of Washington has for several months been in possession of the proofs of an anarchistic plot to destroy government buildings and public officials in the United States, and commit like atrocities in conjunction with those that have taken place in European cities during the past year.

The following is a summary of the Post's column article:

"The Post is to-day enabled to lay before its readers facts which go to verify previous articles, and also a document which shows that the conspiracy was wider of scope and more fanatical of purpose than the public had been led to suppose.

"Unwittingly, perhaps, the Coxey movement came near making possible the consummation of one of the darkest schemes the anarchists ever conceived. When Coxey and Browne were organizing their forces for the march to Washington, a nest of Chicago anarchists conceived the idea of striking a blow at organized society under the cover of the 'Army of Peace.' And except for a fortunate discovery in Chicago nearly a dozen of the most reckless anarchists the world has ever known would have been in Washington when the first of the Coxeyites arrived. That their reward was one of murder and arson is proved by a mass of correspondence which was captured, and the confession of a member of the band. Gen. Brennan, the astute head of the Chicago police, communicated with Maj. Moore and Inspector Hollinsworth as soon as he satisfied himself that a plot was developing to blow up public property here, and under cover of the attendant excitement commit murder, and gave the name of the Washington correspondent of the Chicago anarchist, Maj. Moore and Inspector Hollinsworth promptly and without delay placed this individual under the closest surveillance. He was seen to meet strange men at the depot and other places a number of times, and an intercepted letter to him contained the instructions that the Chicago anarchists were to be on the alert for a plot was developing to blow up public property here, and under cover of the attendant excitement commit murder, and gave the name of the Washington correspondent of the Chicago anarchist, Maj. Hugh J. Grant has been nominated by Tammany for Mayor of New York in place of Nathan Straus. Mr. Grant has accepted the nomination.
A daily Democratic newspaper called the Daily Clarion is now being issued at Catlettsburg, with George H. Sherlock editor. It is a very neat seven-column paper, well edited, and strictly Democratic. The Boyd county Democrat are hustling.
Skaggs for County Attorney.
Mr. Pugh's speech was somewhat mutilated by the teachers' pay day which took place in every county in the State on the 15th inst. Before that day he had a paragraph in his speech which said that Kentucky's financial condition was such that she could not pay her teachers. What do you think of a candidate for Congress whose speech contains such wild and untrue statements?
Woods for County Judge.
The Roanoke Rapid Powder Company, composed of Northern and Southern capitalists, with paid-up capital of $2,000,000, has purchased 2,000 acres of cotton-growing land at Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and has commenced the erection of a twenty-four set knitting factory and a 20,000 spindle cotton mill, which will give employment to 11,000 persons. And a tariff reform law is in effect, too! More Republican predictions paralyzed.
Dixon for County Clerk.
The Wilson bill puts wool on the free list, and placed a duty on old rags used in making shoddy. The millions of dollars of old rags that came in free under McKinleyism for the shoddy manufacturer, has been replaced by free wool, and the era of shoddy will be soon ended. Let the poor man rejoice. See the effect on our home dealers already. They will be much better off for the change.—Portsmouth Times.
Dispatches from Wheeling, W. Va., state that the price of wool has risen since the passage of the Democratic tariff reform bill in that section. Who raises wool? The farmers. Then is not the interest of the farmer lodged with the party that is causing this increase in price, making farming implements cheaper, equalizing the burden of taxation between all classes, and running the government economically?

To The Public.

Day Ridge, Ky.

I have been censured by the Republican party for the position I have taken against the Hon. R. C. McClure. Therefore I wish to briefly state to the public through the columns of the News, my reasons for being so bitterly opposed to Crooks as our next County Judge. In the first place I will say that I am a Republican from the ground up, born and bred a Republican, and expect to remain a Republican. And when Crooks made the race for County Supt. of Schools I supported him with all my might, wet and dry, day and night, and I know all day on Saturday and Saturday night, and how high the water was on Sunday before the first Monday in Aug., 1886. I remember it well and for good reason, too, for I was in the rain all day Saturday and Sunday night. I swam the creek on my horse from bank to bank Sunday morning to meet the committee, and rode all day Sunday and was out all night Sunday night before the election, and I was at the polls early and late and we elected Crooks "by the skin of the teeth." I was interested in Crooks' election from two motives: one was that he was a big fine looking young Republican and we (the Republican party) could not afford to have him beaten on the first race, for the party expected by and by to make one of the "big white kind" out of him. The other was that I was a school teacher at the time and reasonably expect some little favor if there was any favor to be shown, and here is the kind of favor I received: I held an honorable certificate to teach in the common schools and he (Crooks) revoked it. I engaged the school in my home district of near 100 scholars (98 I believe) and submitted to a new examination and a board of examiners gave me a general average of 75 per cent. and Crooks would not issue me a certificate until after the trustees had employed another teacher in my place. I live 10 miles from Louisa and I rode to town twice after the examination and back, which made a distance of 40 miles, and I met Crooks on the street in 40 steps of his office and asked him to go to his office and issue my certificate and he said "I have started to my dinner. You wait right here till I come back." I waited and waited without dinner for I had gone in a hurry and expected to be back soon and had taken no money) till 4 o'clock p. m. before he came, and I asked him to go and issue my certificate and he said "I have to go to see a sick child at—McClure's in W. Va., and I am already late and I just can't." Of course, knowing him to be a doctor (?) and the child sick, I could not insist. (See how thin his excuse.) He said he would send it by mail and I left him and came home in a very bad humor. And when I told the trustees that I got no certificate they employed Mr. Lafayette Carter, to whom they had promised the school in case I failed to get a certificate. I have reasons for believing that Crooks held my certificate with intention to favor Lefe, who is a good Democrat, thinking he would gain a Democratic vote when he wanted office again, and the Lord knows he will need it bad enough; but he is like the dog that was crossing the stream with a bone in his mouth and taking it for another dog with a bone in his mouth made a grab at it to get both bones and lost the one he had. Lefe says he will not vote for him, and when he dropped me in the stream to catch Lefe's vote the current of resentment has drifted me, together with a dozen Republican votes, clear beyond his reach. But to finish my tale. In about a week after I lost my school Crooks sent me a certificate through the mail with my general average reduced to 65 per cent. Why he assumed the authority to reduce my grade from what the record shows has been a mystery. I wore a pair of "bran new" cottonade breeches to the examination and I attribute it to that. However, I sought another school with the lowest possible class of certificate that showed nothing but 3d class, 65 per cent. general average; showed no per cent. on any of the branches upon which I was examined. I got a little school and the worst school house in the county. And when the Teacher's Institute came I was sick and failed to attend and Crooks revoked my certificate (see the record) without even asking the cause of my absence. I could write more but I think this will show sufficient reason for my opposition to Mr. Lefe for County Judge. And I appeal to all honest, hard working men of both parties who are interested in the affairs of our county, and who know what it is to bear the burden of taxation, to lay aside party prejudice and cast our votes for the men in whose hands it is safe to entrust the county's interests. Let us elect for County Judge a man of good sense and sound judgment, a farmer who is in sympathy with our daily occupation and knows what our interests are. Let us remember before it is too late that bigotry and self conceit are no qualifications for office. I write this article without any ill will toward any of the McClures except Crooks, and I would not lay a straw in the way of his success in business, but I am opposed to him as County Judge, and intend to oppose him at the polls. I am doing nothing in an undermining or sneaking manner. I write this article of my own accord, unsolicited and on my own responsibility.

JOE WEBB.

A Farmer Talks on Wool.

CAT RIDGE, KY.

EDITOR BIG SANDY NEWS.
Some of your correspondents seem anxious to again hear from Coal Blast, and one suggested I produce an article on "wool." To know that your productions are read with interest, is a gratification to say the least. But the wool subject is one that the bravest dare not tackle. Why wool in 1865 was worth 68c under a low tariff and during an increase of protection it continued to decline until under the McKinley tariff the highest of the world's record it brought the lowest price ever sold for in the United States is a question the Republicans ought to decipher. But Mr. Editor they cannot do it without tearing down some of their ironclad arguments for high taxes. The demand for an article increases the price. And it was the unprecedented demand caused by the American armies that ran the price up in 1865 to 68c per pound. I have now furnished the cause of wool going so high. Now the cause of its decline is to be furnished.

At the close of the war, when peace was restored, hundreds and thousands of men returned to their native abodes, and casting about for a calling that would yield a competency, thousands at once saw the millions that was to be made in the sheep business, and so this stimulated the sheep industry until the hills, valleys and plains were overrun with them. Hundreds of "our old fourteenth" boys went into this industry as they well remember.

The unprecedented consumption of wool for government account ceased but still sheep raising went on until the law of supply and demand opened the eyes of the sheep grower.

There is still another feature of this business hardly thought of in this connection.

There was a section of our country that furnished another army as well as the one of the north; that section was by the ravages and devastations of war almost rendered useless as a producer. At the time wool was worth 68c per pound, cotton was worth $1 per pound. These people of the south awoke from their sleep and went to their fields and as the production of cotton increased the price of both wool and cotton went down until today in New York cotton is worth about 7c per pound and wool in Boston 26c per pound.

Wool in 1865 @ 68c
Cotton " " 1.00
Wool " 1894, 26c
Cotton " " 7c
Cotton being the cheaper and with the aptness of the manufacturer to substitute cotton and sell for wool these figures furnish all the argument that is necessary to a thinking mind. The great bug-a-boo of a protective duty on wool is but a "catch-penny" for the farmer. The fact is though that the protective tariff placed on wool was hurtful to the wool grower, in this: that "shoddy" cannot be used with wool. So the tax on wool excluded from our manufacturers a certain kind of wool that could be, or was of necessity a material to be used with the American wool to make certain fabrics, and therefore deprived the wool raised here from finding a market, as the foreign article was too high to be profitably used. This, my friends, is the cause of so much shoddy clothing found in our stores while wool was so cheap; and as the Democratic party is in favor of all measures to better the interest of the public, it removed this protective tariff and hence the recent advance of 6c in the price of wool.

Every year since 1865 wool has gone down in price, notwithstanding the efforts of the Republican party to make the wool grower think a high protective tariff would put the price up. The same is true of all farm products. They knew a mighty sight better, but it was all done to get the farmers to hold on to their rotten policy of "let's tax them fellows and we'll get the benefits."

Their reason for the advance of 6c per pound, since the tariff was removed puts me in the midst of a Judge trying to give a good reason for a wrong decision.

No matter how much our Republican friends juggle with words, phrases and figures, there can be no good reason given why the farmer should longer vote with that party that is held together by property rights as principles. The profits they can see to the farmer is but a lie in its Sunday clothes. Vote to lessen contributions to manufacturers and you vote to your interest and for Democratic principles.

Pugh and McCartney at Carlisle.

It was really refreshing to hear Judge Pugh appealing to the Democrats of Nicholas to throw off the yoke of party and exercise the right of freemen. When did the Judge throw off his party yoke? Rate!

Judge Pugh, attorney-at-law and professional politician, appealed to the farmers to support him because he was raised on a farm, and consequently sympathize with them. He forgot to say that Rolla Hart was raised on a farm, lives on a farm and has everything he has on earth invested in a farm.

Mr. J. P. McCartney undertook to make his auditors believe that the Democratic tariff reform bill had reduced the price of mules. He did not care to say to the mule raisers that electricity and bicycles had destroyed the horse and mule trade; just as the buggy has driven side saddles from the market; just as the reaper had superseded the old reaper-hook and cradle; just as the railroad train had taken the place of the stage coach; just as the steam had taken upon itself the strain that once was borne by the shoulders of man and beast. He must have taken our people for a set of chumps.—Mercury.

The revival of business throughout Indiana has put a damper upon the extravagant claims of the Republicans. Within the past forty-five days factories employing 25,000 hands have resumed operations, with heavier pay-rolls than ever before. It is estimated that 95 per cent. of them are running on full time and many of them double time.

BEFORE I could get relief from a most horrible blood disease, I had spent hundreds of dollars TRYING various remedies and physicians, none of which did me any good. My finger nails came off, and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to HOT SPRINGS. Hoping to be cured by this celebrated treatment, but very soon became disgusted, and decided to TRY S.S.S. The effect was truly wonderful. The signature "Democrat" is handled very recklessly by the Picket. The trick is too thin. Everybody knows no Democrat had anything to do with the articles. When the News has anything to say from a Republican it is of such a nature that the author's name may appear. See article headed "To The Public." The News has never used "Republican" for a blind and we have said editorially whatever we have said.

A Great Revival.

The protracted meeting held at the South Methodist church closed last Sunday night after a duration of two weeks. A great deal of good was accomplished. There was a total of 104 conversions, and the interest was unusually strong. It was one of the greatest revivals ever held in Louisa. Rev. E. Robinson, of Paintsville, did all the preaching and impressed the people as a very zealous and worthy man. Though he has been in the ministry but one year he is a wonderful revivalist.

Go to the Polls.

Lawrence is a Democratic county, and the only way the Republicans win is through the indifference of the Democrats. There is no doubt about the result of this election if the Democrats will only do their duty. Go to the polls and vote and be counted one of the faithful. Two years ago the Democrats turned out more general than usual and the majority for the Democratic ticket was 235. Democrats, let's make it larger than ever this year. We can do it if you will all go to the polls.

Married, Wednesday noon, October 24th, 1894, Mr. George R. Vinson to Miss Emma D. Burchett.

The bride is the second daughter of Major D. J. Burchett and the groom is a son of Mr. R. F. Vinson, both prominent families.

There have been some elegant weddings in Louisa within the past few years, but none have surpassed the affair which took place last Wednesday, and many think it has not been equaled. The style of the wedding was different from that of former affairs of that kind in several particulars, which will be noted by those familiar with the details of the past events. This departure varied and increased the interest which the public always takes in such affairs and added to the charm of the occasion.

The marriage took place at the M. E. Church South. The building was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, autumn leaves, pot flowers, etc. The windows were darkened and handsome portieres adorned every doorway and window. The effect was completely that of an evening event. The building was filled with guests to its utmost capacity long before the time for the ceremony.

Shortly before 12 o'clock the couple and attendants arrived. All were soon in readiness and at the sound of Mendelssohn's Wedding March (played with cornet and organ) the first couples of the bridal party appeared, the ladies in the left aisle and the gentlemen in the right. First came Misses Eliza Jones and Phebe Northup and Messrs. J. F. Reynolds and L. B. Ferguson, next Misses Nannie Freese and Lucy Prichard and Messrs. F. L. Stewart and J. G. Burns, followed by Misses Hernia Northup and Sallie Freese and Mr. H. G. Burchett. Then came the bride supported by her father, and up the opposite aisle the groom accompanied by his brother, Mr. J. A. Vinson. The attendants formed a graceful curve upon each side, extending from the flower arches at the head of the aisles to the pulpit elevation where the minister stood. The bride's father stood upon her left and the groom's brother upon his right. The arrangement was very harmonious.

The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of dark green and carried a bunch of beautiful maroon roses. The bridesmaids were all elegantly attired.

Rev. J. T. French performed the ceremony and did it impressively. A beautiful prayer was included in the ceremony. The music was resumed and the party marched out to the carriages and were driven to Maj. Burchett's elegant residence, followed by those invited to the reception. Besides the relatives, only unmarried persons were asked to the reception. This rule was made necessary in order to bring the number of guests down to the limit that could be entertained.

Mrs. M. M. Magruder and Mrs. J. F. Ratcliff received the guests very graciously.

The guests were seated at tables upon arrival at the residence, and the service of a most delicious luncheon followed at once. The repast was served in seven courses and was a most elaborate affair.

The cutting and distribution of the bride's cake created considerable interest. Miss Anna Poage, of Ashland, drew the piece containing the ring, the groom got the dime and Mr. H. G. Burchett secured the darning needle.

After luncheon came congratulations, viewing the magnificent display of presents, and preparing for the departure of the couple on the train. At the depot a large crowd of friends assembled to bid them good-bye and wish them well on their bridal trip. They will visit relatives in Virginia and Tennessee. A trip to the Eastern cities had been planned, but was thwarted by the recent accident to the bride's foot, which slightly disabled her and rendered such a trip inadvisable.

The bride is a highly intelligent and most admirable young lady who has enjoyed much popularity in social circles. She will be greatly missed in the younger society and in the home she is leaving, but her usefulness and charm will be as conspicuous in her new sphere as in the one she has just relinquished.

Mr. Vinson is an unassuming young gentleman of the strictest integrity and fine business capacity. He is the careful and efficient cashier of the Bank of Louisa, and the public have the utmost confidence in him. The best wishes of the people go with this happy couple.

This charge of hard times against the Democrats is the only reason which the Republicans hereabouts have advanced for the election of their ticket next month. They have reiterated it from every stump, and every newspaper organ, and every street corner, and every negro saloon, and every "dive," and every "levee-hole."

When asked how it was that the Democrats brought on the hard times, when Mr. Harrison attributed his defeat to the hard times, the Republicans simply reiterated the charge.

When asked how it was the Democrats brought on the hard times before a single Republican law had been repealed, the Republicans simply reiterated the charge.

When asked how it was that the Democrats brought on the hard times of 1893, if the Republicans did not bring on the hard times of 1884 and 1873, the Republicans simply reiterated the charge.

They have never vouchsafed any explanation or authority for such a charge. They simply croaked it with raven-like gruesomeness and pertinacity.—Courier-Journal.

SANDY HILL, Oct. 20.

Dear News: On last evening the Sandy Hill Literary Society met at this place. On the program for the evening was the question, Resolved, that foreign immigration should be prohibited. After the debate the decision was given in favor of the affirmative. The programme having been carried out, the audience was bored with an address from R. C. McClure. Among other things that he said, or tried to say, was that the judges had decided that foreign immigration should be prohibited. Thus he showed a limited knowledge of the duty of the judges of a debating society. The least child in the house knew that the judges had decided in favor of the points offered by the affirmative speakers; in other words, they had decided that, according to their foundation, the affirmative speakers had produced the best argument. The decision was upon the merits of the argument, not upon the merits of the affirmative side of the question. But this was not his worst break. He said he wanted to say a little for both sides of the question and then he went on to endorse foreign immigration in the widest sense of the term and the immigration of Chinese, Hungarians, Sicilians, etc. received the same endorsement as that of English, Germans, etc. For says he, the Bible says, "Do not to others as you would have them do unto you." But not one word did he attempt to offer for the other side of the question. He then went on to state that he had once had the honor to be superintendent of schools of this county, and that he had also had the honor to preside over the debating society in the Louisville Law School. The people of this county well remember his arbitrary course while Co. Supt., so that statement was unnecessary, but that he had studied law might never have been known, and that he had ever belonged to a debating society would certainly never have been known. The reason he was made chairman of the debating society is plain enough. A deadhead can be used as "Mr. Chairman" or "Mr. President," when he can't be used for anything else.
